Comagine Health

Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act Notice of Nondiscrimination

Comagine Health complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

In compliance with Section 1557 and other federal civil rights laws, we provide individuals the following in a timely manner and free of charge:

- Language assistance services. Comagine Health will provide language assistance services for individuals with limited English proficiency (including individuals' companions with limited English proficiency) to ensure meaningful access to our programs, activities, services, and other benefits. Language assistance services may include:
  - Electronic and written translated documents
  - Qualified interpreters
- Appropriate auxiliary aids and services. Comagine Health will provide appropriate auxiliary aids and services for individuals with disabilities (including individuals' companions with disabilities) to ensure effective communication. Appropriate auxiliary aids and services may include:
  - Qualified interpreters, including American Sign Language interpreters
  - Video remote interpreting
  - Information in alternate formats (including but not limited to large print, recorded audio, and accessible electronic formats)
- Reasonable modifications. Comagine Health will provide reasonable modifications for qualified individuals with disabilities, when necessary to ensure accessibility and equal opportunity to participate in our programs, activities, services, or other benefits.

To access our language assistance services, auxiliary aids and services, and for assistance in getting a reasonable modification, please contact ORBHSupport@comagine.org.

If you believe Comagine Health has failed to provide these services or has discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability, you can:
